Dear Members of TPAA Western Chapter,

You are cordially invited to an evening of a sumptuous dinner followed by a medical education program that is guaranteed to be interesting to all of us. Our guest speaker is a world famous bone pathologist, Dr. Scott D. Nelson, Professor of Pathology, UCLA Medical School and Chief of Pathology at Santa Monica-UCLA and Orthopaedic Hospital.

TOPIC: Primary Bone Tumors: Diagnosis and Treatment Update

DATE: Saturday, October 13, 2012
TIME: 5:30 pm to 9 pm
PLACE: Banana Bay Restaurant
Address: 18230 Colima Road, Rowland Heights, CA 91748.

Please respond to this invitation by replying to this email address (pchantra@yahoo.com), or call 310 475 8936.
Spouse is welcome. Please respond before October 7, 2012.
Your RSVP is very important and I am looking forward to greeting all of you at the meeting. In the meantime, I wish you and your family a relaxing, healthy and fun-filled summer.

Sincerely Yours,

Prem Chantra, MD

Clinical Associate Professor of Radiology, UCLA Medical School
Staff Radiologist and Director of Breast Imaging,
VA Greater Los Angeles Medical Center

A special invitation to all officers of TPAA Western Chapter (your names are listed on the left).
Please join me at a board meeting at the restaurant at 5:00 pm.
Thank you in advance for your kind attention and participation.
